

ABOUT US

LUXWATCHES INTERNATIONAL LTD is a club that provides access to the world of luxury watch investment for thousands of private investors around the globe. It enables investing in the most liquid models of top global brands listed below with just a few clicks, allowing investors to profit from each transaction.

Legality of the Business

Our company attracts investors and watch enthusiasts through crowdfunding, offering them the opportunity to participate in the buying and selling of watches.

The profits generated from the sale of watches are distributed among the participants, allowing them to invest in the watch business even if they do not have enough money to buy rare models.

The company's operations have always complied with the necessary legal requirements. We are always open to a constructive dialogue and interaction with our partners and investors. The legality of the company's activities is confirmed by a certificate

HOW IT WORKS

1 After registering on the website and familiarizing yourself with the investment offer, you need to fund your account in your preferred currency.

2 The funds of private investors are pooled into a common financial pool, after which our team selects the best positions to buy watches based on profit margins and market availability.

3 Our team selects certain watch models on the market, buys and sells them in the luxury segment. The demand for such models is growing, so they sell quickly.

4 After the sale of a watch, the funds from the sale are automatically returned to the platform and distributed to our investors in proportion to their contribution.

 LUXWATCHES

01

LIQUIDITY

Watches are one of the most liquid commodities and their sale does not require registration and transfer of ownership, which speeds up the sale process.

02

STABLE GROWTH

The value of watches experiences consistent growth year after year, outpacing the rates of S&P 500, gold, and other assets.

03

LUXURY SEGMENT

The luxury segment, including watches, has shown significant growth even during the crisis, which makes them an attractive asset for investment.

04

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY

The demand for watches surpasses production rates. The secondary watch market grows year after year.
